I.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Defendant Stanley Lloyd is charged herein with violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 922(g)(1) and 924(a)(2).

II.

MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

A. Defendant is Entitled to Discovery of Defendant's Statements.

Pursuant to Rule 16(a)(1)(A), Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and the Fifth and Sixth Amendments to the United States Constitution, defendant requests the disclosure of all statements, written, oral, and recorded, made by defendant which are in the possession, custody, or control of the government or which by the exercise of due diligence may become known to the government, regardless of to whom the statements were made.

1 This includes all rough notes of government agents which include statements of 2 defendant.

3 A defendant has a right to inspect these requested statements. This has been extended 4 to permit discovery of written summaries of the defendant's oral statements contained in 5 handwritten notes of government agents. See United States v. Johnson, 525 F.2d 999
6 (2d Cir. 1975); United States v. Bailleaux, 685 F.2d 1105 (9th Cir. 1982).

7 B. Defendant is Entitled to Disclosure of any Prior Similar Convictions or 8 Prior Similar Acts.

9 Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(a)(1)(B) provides that, upon request of the 10 defendant, the government shall furnish to the defendant a copy of defendant's prior criminal 11 record, if any, as is within the possession, custody, or control of the government. Defendant 12 makes this request.

13 The defendant also requests that the government provide discovery of any prior 14 similar acts which the government will intend to introduce into evidence pursuant to Federal 15 Rule of Evidence 404(b). The defendant must have access to this information in order to 16 make appropriate motions to exclude the use of such evidence at trial. See United States v.
17 Cook, 609 F.2d 1174 (9th Cir. 1985).

18 The defendant requests a pretrial conference on the morning of the trial in order to 19 resolve any issues raised by the government's intention to introduce such evidence.

20 C. Defendant is Entitled to Examine any Documents, Tangible Items, and the 21 like which are in the Possession, Custody, or Control of the Government.

22 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(a)(1)(C) and Brady v. Maryland, 23 373 U.S. 83 (1963), the defendant requests the opportunity to inspect and copy all books, 24 papers, documents, photographs, and tangible items which are in the possession, custody, or 25 control of the government and which are material to the preparation of the defense intended 26 for use by the government as evidence in the case in chief. The defendant further makes 27 these requests pursuant to Brady v. Maryland on the ground that this evidence may provide 28 exculpatory information that is beneficial to the defendant in the defense against the charges

1 in the indictment.

2 This request includes, but is not limited to the following: All search warrants and 3 their accompanying affidavits, as well as the opportunity to inspect the results of all searches 4 conducted by law enforcement officers pursuant to warrants and/or otherwise (this request 5 includes the searches of all residences, businesses, automobiles, and other locations regarding 6 this case); all tape-recorded conversations, closed circuit television surveillance, ground/air 7 surveillance of suspects, telephone toll analysis, bank records and financial documents
8 involving this case. This request also includes the results of all follow-up investigations
9 regarding the above-requested evidence. These requests are made pursuant to Federal Rule 10 of Criminal Procedure 16 and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

11 D. Due Process Exculpatory Information.

12 Pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S.
13 150 (1972), and the Fifth and Sixth Amendments to the United States Constitution, defendant 14 requests disclosure of all information of whatever form, source, or nature which tends to 15 exculpate defendant by indicating innocence, contradicting the government's theory of the 16 case, and impeaching the credibility of potential government witnesses. This request 17 specifically includes all co-conspirator statements, indicted and unindicted, all third party 18 witness statements interviewed by government agents and/or of which the government has 19 custody, dominion, or control. This request includes all recorded conversations, electronic, 20 mechanical, stenographic, or otherwise, of all co-conspirators, indicted and unindicted, all 21 defendants, and all potential witnesses which statements are relevant to the subject matter
22 charged in the indictment and are in the possession, custody, or control of the government. It 23 also includes such statements within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. Section 3504.

24 Defendant requests the government to provide all statements made by all potential 25 witnesses. The term "statements" as used in this request includes tape-recorded 26 conversations, rough notes, correspondence, memoranda, or reports prepared directly by such 27 persons and/or by any government agents (of any government entity) or attorneys. It 28 includes all Grand Jury testimony, as well as previous in-court and trial testimony. It

1 includes all government debriefings of all potential witnesses. If such statements were given 2 orally to any government agent, defendant requests that they be committed to writing and 3 produced forthwith.

4 Defendant requests access to prior testimony of all government witnesses. Two 5 statutory provisions and one major constitutional provision must be considered in resolving 6 any questions involving compelled disclosure of government witness statements. First, the 7 Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. Section 3500, regulates disclosure of witness statements, as defined by 8 the Act, and prohibits any order requiring production prior to the completion of direct 9 examination of the witness. Second, Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(a)(2) excepts 10 from the operation of the general discovery provisions of Rule 16 those reports, memoranda, 11 and internal government documents generated during the course of an investigation into the 12 case, except as provided in the Jencks Act. The Rule does not prohibit the disclosure of such 13 items, but states, merely, that it does not authorize them. Third, an overriding principle 14 requires the government to disclose all exculpatory material in its possession. See Brady v.
15 Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). Defendant makes this request under all three provisions.

16 As part of this request defendant also requests the name, address and telephone 17 number of each person the government intends to call as a witness at trial. Additionally, 18 defendant requests the name, address and telephone number of each person who was present 19 during or has material information regarding, any act or transaction charged in the 20 indictment, whether or not the government intends to call such a person as a witness at the 21 trial. The request includes a list of all witnesses appearing before the Grand Jury in 22 connection with this case. Advance disclosure of witnesses is essential if defendant's Sixth 23 Amendment right to effective assistance of counsel is to have any real meaning. This request 24 is properly before the court. See United States v. Cadet, 727 F.2d 1453, 1469 (9th Cir.
25 1984); Wilson v. Rose, 366 F.2d 611 (9th Cir. 1966).

26 Pursuant to Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963); Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S.
27 150 (1972); Davis v. Alaska, 415 U.S. 308 (1974), defendant makes the following request 28 for:

1 1) All impeaching evidence such as prior records, prior inconsistent statements, 2 evidence for bias, interest, or motive, and prior uncharged bad acts of all the potential 3 witnesses in this case;

4 2) All formal or informal promises to reward a witness, such as promises of 5 probation, promises of monetary gain, payment of living or medical expenses, payment for 6 transportation or promises of witness protection;

7 3) All information relating to alcohol or drug abuse treatment of all potential 8 witnesses, and all information relating to drug uses of each potential witness;

9 4) All information relating to the use of aliases or fictitious names by each 10 potential government witness;

11 5) All information relating to prior acts of all potential witnesses which are 12 probative of his character for untruthfulness within the meaning of Federal Rule of Evidence 13 608(b); and,

14 6) All information relating to contradictory statements made by all potential 15 government witnesses or agents or representative of any law enforcement entity or other 16 persons.

17 E. Request for Expert Witness Information

18 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16(a)(1)(A) and Brady v. Maryland, 19 373 U.S. 83 (1963), defendant requests to inspect and copy or photograph any results or 20 reports of physical or mental examinations and of scientific tests or experiments which are 21 within the possession, custody or control of the government, the existence of which is 22 known, or by the exercise of due diligence may become known to the attorney for the 23 government, and which reports are material to the preparation of the defense or intended for 24 use by the government as evidence in their case in chief at trial.

25 In regards to this expert information, defendant requests all rough notes, memoranda, 26 correspondence and reports setting forth the results, whether positive or negative, of all 27 expert analysis conducted during the course of the investigation of this case.

28 In regards to this request for expert witness information, defendant requests all expert

1 analysis regarding fingerprints on any of the seized evidence, scientific analysis of any of the 2 recorded conversations and/or closed circuit television surveillance. In regards to this latter 3 request, defendant requests the opportunity to perform independent scientific analysis on all 4 recorded conversations and all closed circuit television surveillance conducted in this case.

5 F. Defendant is Entitled to Government Disclosure of the Evidence it Intends 6 to Use Against Defendant at Trial.

7 Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 12(d), defendant requests that this 8 court order the government to disclose the evidence it intends to use against defendant at 9 trial. This request includes any evidence which defendant may be entitled to under Federal 10 Rule of Criminal Procedure 16 subject to any relevant limitation prescribed by that rule.

11 III.

12 PRESERVE ROUGH NOTES

13 Defendant hereby moves this court to order:

- 14 1) Preservation and production of rough notes of government witness interviews 15 and the interrogatories of defendant; and,
16 2) Sanctions for destruction of any of the rough notes including the exclusion of 17 any witness' testimony as to which the rough notes have been destroyed.

18 The grounds for this motion are that rough interview notes must be preserved and 19 disclosed to the defense under the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Rule 16, and 20 18 U.S.C. Section 3500.

LEAVE TO FILE FURTHER MOTIONS

A continuance may be warranted in this matter due to the fact that further discovery is required in order to adequately prepare motions; at this date little discovery has been provided. Accordingly, defendant prays for leave to file further motions should such motions be warranted.
